

BETTINA SCHMIDT-CZAIA

Leading Archival Director of the Historical Archives of the City of Cologne.

Studies in German language and literature studies and History for the teaching profession at the Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster.

In 1986 first exams and in 1992 graduation: "Das Kollegiatstift St. Aegidii et Caroli Magni zu Wiedenbrück (1250-1650)"

In 1993-1995 archives trainee of Lower Saxony at public records of Lower Saxony in Osnabrück and at the institute for archives sciences at Marburg.

In 1995-1997 "Archivrätin" at public records of Lower Saxony at Osnabrück.

In 1997-2002 "Archivoberrätin" at public records of Lower-Saxony at Osnabrück.

In 2002-2005 Archival Director and Leader of the Braunschweigs City Archives.

Since 2005 Leader of the Historical Archives of the City of Cologne and since 2006 Leading Archival Director.