

CHRISTINE MARTÍNEZ

Deputy Secretary General, PCOM

Christine Martinez studied in the Ecole des Chartes (France). After a period as a records manager at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, she dedicated ten years of her professional life to international co-operation, first at the Direction des Archives de France, then at the ICA Secretariat in Paris, where she is currently Deputy Secretary General (Programme) since February 2009. She had been involved before in ICA as a volunteer, first as chair of the Committee on professional training (2002-2004), then as member of the Programme Commission (ICA/PCOM).

Christine has been involved for many years in the management and activities of various professional associations, including the Association des Archivistes français (responsible for the training center 2001-2006, President, 2007-2010), and Archivists without borders whose French section she co-founded in 2005. She was Vice-President of SPA from 2007 to 2008, and President in 2008-2009.

Christine is particularly interested in competencies, training and mentoring, and translation issues.
