

PETER HANDLEY

Peter Handley is responsible for document management and archives policy at the European Commission.

He co-chairs the European Archives Group and manages the contract for the deposit of the Historical Archives of the European Union at the European University Institute.

Previously, Peter worked on administrative reform, strategic planning and IT governance. He is a certified project management professional (PMP®).